

A CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS

The UWSP Center for the Small City
announces

The 23rd Conference on The Small City & Regional Community
at the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point
March 23-24, 2022

Theme:

Building Infrastructure in Small Cities, Towns, & Rural Areas: Current Needs and Future Designs

This interdisciplinary, multi-level conference is soliciting various types of presentations — research papers, PowerPoint talks, roundtable discussions, technology demonstrations, etc. — related to infrastructure (broadly defined) in the small city, town, and rural area. Proposals on transportation, education, workforce development, health care, broadband, housing and land use, recreation, criminal justice, environmental sustainability, civic engagement, and others are welcomed. We encourage proposals from academic researchers, applied professionals, government officials & staff, non-profit & private sector persons, students and others.

The conference will be conducted virtually via zoom.

To submit a presentation please email an abstract with biographical information to:
