

SASE Network

(Global Value Chains)

GVC Conversations 2022 Webinar Series

February 3, 2022, 2pm CET/ 8 am EST

A discussion of

Compressed Development: Time and Timing in Economic and Social Development (Oxford UP, 2020)

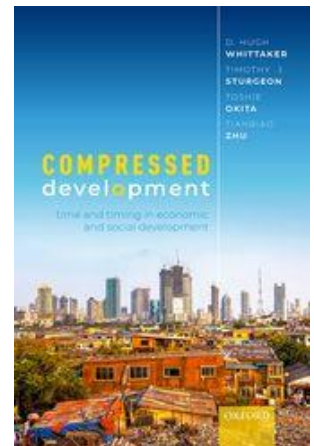

With Authors:

Timothy Sturgeon, Industrial Performance Center,
Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Hugh Whittaker, Nissan Institute of Japanese Studies, University of Oxford

Discussed by:

Khalid Nadvi, Global Development Institute, University of Manchester
Lindsay Whitfield, Center for Business & Development Studies, Copenhagen Business School

Chaired by

Jennifer Bair, Department of Sociology, University of Virginia

In a world where industrialization no longer provides a secure pathway to economic growth and increased prosperity, this book proposes a novel way to approach comparative international development, focused on co-evolving state-market and organization-technology dyads. Join us for an author meets critics conversation about the challenges and opportunities of compressed development and the role of global value chains in the contemporary development landscape.

To receive the ZOOM link, please register at <https://forms.gle/vLocgZGd8ueNxB6JA>.

To learn more about the GVC Network and Conversation Series, go to sase.org.