

WALKING TOURS OF MONTREAL

SASE has contracted with a local walking tour organization to provide walking tours for participants. The descriptions are below, and details on reservations are at the bottom of the page.

The Original Old Montréal Walking Tour

During this 2 hours walking tour, explore the heart of the city with a certified local guide who brings Montréal's unique joie de vivre to life. Stroll through cobblestone streets, admire stunning architecture, and uncover hidden gems. Your guide will share stories and secrets that make Montréal a true French-inspired metropolis. The tour includes Place d'Youville, Place Royale, Place d'Armes, Basilique Notre-Dame (outside), Cours Le Royer, Saint-Paul Street, Place Jacques-Cartier, Marché Bonsecours and more.

Schedule: Daily in English and French, at 10:30 AM, 1:30 PM and 4:00 PM (English only)

All About Montréal's Murals

In the company of a professional guide and paired with other participants, discover the origin and the current place of mural art in Montréal, on a path marked with unique and eclectic works of art. A veritable open-air museum, Montréal has become a hotspot for street art in North America. Montréal even rivals international capitals famous for their magnificent graffiti and outdoor murals. Focusing mainly on the St-Laurent Boulevard axis and taking intriguing detours in surrounding streets and alleys, this visit will allow you to admire some of the most lively and creative Montréal murals while highlighting the talent of the artists and collectives behind them.

Schedule: On Saturdays at 10:00 AM in English or 1:30PM in French

Montréal Ghost Walk

Listen to unsettling stories that unveil the dark past of Old Montréal. Discover unexplained phenomena and outdoor locations where disturbing and significant events have taken place and which may possibly still be haunted.... This unusual pedestrian circuit through the streets and alleyways of Old Montréal will bring you back to the grim times of New France!

Schedule: Daily in French and English at 8:00 PM
